MAISON VILLEROY

PARIS

A true Parisian mansion

Maison Villeroy is a hidden gem, crafted and polished each day with the same high standards. A house with soul, designed as a refuge in the heart of Paris, where guests are welcomed with sincerity, discretion, and the natural elegance that makes this place unforgettable.

With its 11 signature suites, suites, and rooms, each guest experiences the delightful feeling of being at home, carried by the attentive service of a team of butlers who are always present without ever imposing themselves.

Within the Maison, the Michelin-starred restaurant Trente-Trois reveals the vision of Chef Sébastien Sanjou, twice awarded a Michelin star: cuisine of the moment, Mediterranean-inspired, clear and luminous, which sublimates the finest seasonal produce in the hushed atmosphere of a historic dining room.

Before or after dinner, Grappille offers a wine-themed interlude, conceived by Xavier Thuizat, France's Best Sommelier and Best Craftsman. Fine wines served by the glass, daring discoveries, and nibbles to share make for an experience that is as indulgent as it is convivial.

An entire floor is dedicated to well-being, designed as a true sanctuary for the body and mind: a private spa with sauna, hammam, jacuzzi, massage rooms, and fitness area offer a tailor-made relaxation experience.

All this takes place in a private house dating from the early 20th century, lovingly restored by the finest craftsmen. Here, every detail tells a story of sublime heritage, where old-world charm dialogues with contemporary elegance to offer a rare, intimate, and deeply memorable experience.
